Re: Dennis R. Turner, et al., v. Michael Mukasey, Attorney General, Department of Justice(BOP), EEOC NO.541-2008-00255X

Potential Class Member

THIS IS NOT A CLAIM FORM ENTITLING YOU TO ANY RELIEF. THIS IS A RANDOM SAMPLING BEING CONDUCTED BY CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

On April 25, 2008, Dennis Turner filed a class complaint with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission against the Bureau of Prisons. Turner is alleging that:

“Since 1994, the Bureau of Prisons has maintained a policy of retaliating against employees after they engage in protected EEO activity. Since 1994, the BOP has maintained a pattern and practice of retaliating against these employees by systematically denying them promotions.”

As part of discovery, the EEOC ordered the Agency to provide Turner’s counsel with the names of all individuals who filed EEO complaints between 1994 and the present. The Agency provided your name and stated that you were not promoted after you engaged in protected EEO activity. We are seeking to verify this information. If you decide to assist us, please complete and return the enclosed Questionnaire.

If you would like to discuss this matter with Turner’s counsel before completing the Questionnaire, please give us a call at the above number and leave a message indicating that you have questions regarding the Turner Questionnaire.
